

COLLEGE OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

University of Hawai'i at Mānoa™

SPRING 2023 RESEARCH SUPPORT AWARDS

Each year, the College of Social Sciences (CSS) announces the availability of funds to support faculty efforts to develop and submit a nationally competitive research grant proposal. These funds are from overhead monies (RTRF) generated by extramural grants and contracts in the college's portfolio. Awards are made to support research activities leading directly to the development of a nationally competitive research proposal that has a strong potential for being funded.

Recipients

PI: HONG JIANG

Geography and Environment

Producing "Mountain Taste" amid Changing Climate: A Case of Taiwan's High-Mountain Tea

$30,000

PI: JONAS VIBELL

Psychology

Neuroinflammation in COVID-19

$28,339

PI: WEI ZHANG
CO-PIS: YAN YAN WU,
DEBORAH MATTHEUS

Sociology

Association between Poor Oral Health and Chronic Conditions for Older Native Hawaiians and Pacific Islanders in Hawaii from 2000 to 2018

$23,992

PI: STEVEN BOND-SMITH

SSRI/UHERO

Is Hawaii Being Left Behind?

$13,329

PI: AURORA KAGAWA-VIVIANI

Geography and Environment

Community Water Science: Urban punawai as incubators of participatory research and innovation

$29,759

PI: PATRICK GOH

Psychology

A Transdiagnostic and Culturally Sensitive Approach to ADHD Assessment: Incorporating Intra- and Interpersonal Factors

$29,326